

SOCIAL EVENTS

Confederate Reunion.
HUNTINGTON, Sept. 16.—There will not be a great many more reunions of the men who followed Lee in the sixties. They are a pretty hearty set, unusually well kept, but, time creeps on and in the natural course of events, these men will only meet in reunion a comparatively few years more.

This fact lends unusual force to the warm invitation extended by Huntington to all Confederate soldiers, their wives, their children, and their friends to come to the annual reunion which occurs October 4 and 5. The city of Huntington is preparing to make this a memorable occasion. The pathway will be smoothed out so that the oldest and feeblest can get around and have a good time. Automobiles will be on hand for all sorts of trips. Entertainment is being provided for the old soldiers so that the trip will be a very economical one to make.

One of the great features of the occasion will be the address of Robert E. Lee, a grandson of General Robert E. Lee. He is a magnificent speaker and links the old regime with the new, sustaining the legends of the Confederacy in all their picturesque form, but possessing all the buoyancy and life of the new era. It will be worth the trip from any part of the state to hear Lee's address. The committee has arranged to have the uniformed Confederate band from Ronceverte with twenty-four pieces for the occasion. A great banquet will be given in the Frederick hotel on the night of October 4th, at which all the sons and daughters of the Confederacy will enjoy camp fire speeches, anecdotes, historical addresses and a world of good things to eat.

It is time now to begin planning to come to the reunion. Let it be the best that has ever been held. Notify J. N. Potts, Huntington, W. Va., of your intention to come, and how many will be in your party, and he will arrange ample provision for your entertainment.

Experiments have indicated to Honduras that it may become an important cotton-raising nation.

We've Proved It!

Time and time again, persons have come to us and thanked us personally for the interest we have shown in the care of the milk and other dairy products we are putting out.

We Do Not Deserve Any Thanks

We are simply performing the part that any GOOD citizen ought to perform when in assisting to upbuild the community in which we live. We are just a cog in the wheel of society and if we are making the community better by our having lived in it, we think we have performed our part just the same as any citizen ought to be glad to do.

WHEN YOU THINK OF PASTEURIZING AND CLEARIFYING, THINK OF STURM'S DAIRY PRODUCTS. THEY'RE SYNONYMOUS.
